Progress Manager

When using file management features such as Paste, Move To, Copy To, and Upload, the FileFlex progress manager will display the status of the file transfer. The transfer will continue even if you close or log out of FileFlex.

Progress Manager will display automatically when files are being transferred. This automatic display can be disabled in Settings.

Progress Manager can also be accessed at any time via the left sidebar.